Blessing of the Scorpion

As a reward for helping save Bayushi Dairu from the rampage of the undead Bayushi Shoji, he has given you the blessing of the Scorpion Clan. The Scorpion will watch over you and protect you, in court and on the battlefield, to the best of their ability. This has the following benefits and effects:

- Your equipment/outfit now includes one pouch of jade powder, which refreshes after every adventure.
- When in a courtly/diplomatic situation, you receive one Free Raise per adventure to a social skill roll. In return, you lose 1 point of Honor. This cannot be used in situations where you are opposing the Scorpion Clan.
- When you are on the Battle Table, you may deduct 1k1 from the total damage you take each round, due to mysterious interventions which protect you. This does not apply to battles in which you are fighting against the Scorpion Clan.
