This Document Proclaims That has been appointed as

Jade Magistrate

You have been honored with an appointment as a Jade Magistrate, one who investigates maho and abuses of magic throughout the Empire. This entails many duties, powers, and responsibilities.

You have jurisdiction over the following crimes:

- Any crime involving mis-use of magic.
- Any crime involving maho or the Bloodspeaker Cult.
- Shadowlands incursions.
- Organized blasphemy.

You have the following powers for investigating those crimes:

- You can arrest and question any persons of inferior social class.
- You may arrest persons of equal or higher social class if they are apprehended in commission of a crime, or if you have an Order of Appearance.
- You may petition the Jade Champion, local governor, or local chief magistrate for an Order of Appearance.
- You may sentence any confessed criminal within your jurisdiction.
- You may commandeer local troops for demonstrable need.
- You have precedence over local authority in any crime over which you have jurisdiction. You share precedence with any Emerald Magistrate investigating the same crime.

You have the following additional duties, powers, and responsibilities:

- You can issue travel papers for yourself or others.
- You must report periodically to the Jade Champion.
- You must notify the local authorities of any crimes you discover which are not in your jurisdiction.
- You must report any ongoing investigations to the local city/province governor.
- You must notify any samurai who is the subject of your investigations.
