This Document Proclaims That

has acquired an

Obsidian Dagger

You have acquired an ancient obsidian dagger from the Lost Temple in the Shadowlands. The dagger is a 1k2 weapon and uses the Tantojutsu skill. As an obsidian weapon, it can harm almost any foe.

Unfortunately, the weapon carries the curse of Lord Moon. Any time you use the weapon in combat, you must roll Simple Willpower at TN 20 or come under the effects of schizophrenic madness – terrifying visions, voices in the head, and murderous impulses – for a number of hours equal to 8 minus your Willpower.
